TEACHERS COLLEGE RECORD

A Journal Devoted to the Practical Problems of Elementary and Secondary Education and the Professional Training of Teachers

VOLUME X—1909

PUBLISHED BY THE COLUMBIA UNIVERSITY PRESS
COLUMBIA UNIVERSITY, NEW YORK

EDITOR
JAMES E. RUSSELL

DIRECTORS
MAURICE A. BIGELOW — GONZALEZ LODGE
EDWARD L. THORNDIKE — HENRY JOHNSON
CLYDE FURST

CONTENTS

Number 1—JANUARY, 1909

PAGE

The Teaching of Arithmetic. By Professor David Eugene Smith.
The History of the Subject 5
The Reasons for Teaching Arithmetic 8
What Arithmetic should include 12
The Nature of the Problems 15
The Arrangement of Material 19
Method 22
Mental or Oral Arithmetic 26
Written Arithmetic 30
Children's Analyses 35
Interest and Effort 39
Improvements in the Technique of Arithmetic 42
Certain Great Principles of Teaching Arithmetic 52
General Subjects for Experiment 55
Details for Experiment 65
The Work of the First School Year 76
The Work of the Second School Year 85
The Work of the Third School Year 91

PAGE

The Work of the Fourth School Year..... 98
The Work of the Fifth School Year..... 102
The Work of the Sixth School Year..... 107
The Work of the Seventh School Year..... 111
The Work of the Eighth School Year..... 115

Number 2—MARCH, 1909

Studies in Secondary Education. Edited by Professor Julius Sachs.
Introductory Note.—Julius Sachs..... 1
Primitive History.—Romiett Stevens..... 3
Real Problems in Geometry.—James F. Millis..... 16
First-Year High-School Mathematics.—Thirmuthis Brookman.... 46
Co-operation and Correlation in Language Teaching.—Alexander J. Inglis..... 64

Number 3—MAY, 1909

Equipment for Teaching of Domestic Science. By Professor Helen Kinne.
Introduction..... 1
The Rooms..... 5
The Cooking Laboratory..... 13
The Dining Room, Laundry, Equipment for Home Nursing..... 46
The Purchase and Care of Equipment..... 56
Total Cost of Equipment..... 59
Cost of Maintenance..... 67
The New Household Arts Building, Teachers College, Columbia University.—Benjamin R. Andrews, Ph.D..... 72

Number 4—September, 1909

The Making of a Girls' Trade School. By Professor Mary Schenck Woolman.
Organization and Work..... 1
Representative Problems..... 26
Equipment and Support..... 36
Outlines and Detailed Accounts of Department Work..... 39

206951

Number 5—November, 1909

PAGE

Kindergarten Problems.

The Materials of the Kindergarten.—By Professor John A. MacVannel.....1–28

The Future of the Kindergarten in the Light of Its Origin and Influence upon Modern Philanthropy and Education.—By Miss Patty Smith Hill.....29–56

THE TEACHING OF ARITHMETIC

By DAVID EUGENE SMITH, LL.D.
Professor of Mathematics in Teachers College, Columbia University

A